CMT.COM TO LIVE STREAM JACK INGRAM'S 24-HOUR WORLD RECORD INTERVIEW ATTEMPT

Event Kicks-Off August 25 in NYC and Concludes with CMT RADIO LIVE Interview

NASHVILLE – August 24, 2009 – CMT.com will be streaming live as country star Jack Ingram attempts to break the world record for most radio interviews in a 24-hour period beginning Tuesday, August 25 at 8:00 a.m., ET. A first for CMT.com, the website will have video and audio of this event live from New York City as Ingram conducts 215 total back-to-back radio interviews during this time. CMT RADIO LIVE host Cody Alan will conduct the final interview with the singer as the event concludes on Wednesday morning. The live stream will be available beginning Tuesday by going to CMTLive.CMT.com and the interview with Cody Alan can be heard on CMT RADIO LIVE on Wednesday, August 26 on the broadcast's over 60 affiliates nationwide.

This live stream is in anticipation of Ingram's new album Big Dreams and High Hopes, available on Tuesday, August 25.
